

BOLSHEVIK TACTICS

Denounced By Horace Johnson
Labor Candidate
For City Commissioner

To All Who Work In Memphis:

IN a desperate attempt to manufacture campaign thunder, the Williams ticket grasps at a humorous remark of one of the candidates for Commissioner on the Citizens' Ticket and distorts it into what is termed a "sneer" at labor. The discussion of progressive measures is forsaken by our opponents for an opportunity to "wave the bloody shirt."

Do they seek to align the classes against the masses? This is no time to agitate discord, but they would sacrifice industrial peace and progress to incite the minds of those who take them seriously and thereby gain their votes.

They are willing to breed strife, promote unrest in the world of labor, and kindle the fires of ill-will to get into office.

It is a great blessing that the workingman who loves his country and his fellow man does not subscribe to Bolshevism and all the ills it brings upon a liberty loving people.

It is exceedingly gratifying to sincere advocates of the cause of the workingman that, while other parts of the country have suffered from labor troubles, Memphis has been singularly free from discordant elements that impede social, industrial and intellectual progress. Let us keep it so.

Let us put such a stamp of disapproval on Bolshevik methods that everyone will join hands to remove dissatisfaction and ill-feeling from our homes and make Memphians the happiest and most prosperous people in the nation.

I am in a position to know the sentiments and feelings of the men associated with me on the Citizens' Ticket. They are all workingmen themselves, and the laborer has nothing to fear from them.

They believe sincerely that capital and labor are partners and not enemies. Those in the trades unions who know me know that I would not tolerate anything that would be detrimental to the best interests of labor. Fellow workmen, your interests are safe and secure in the hands of Rowlett Paine, Tom Allen, John Edgar and Charlie Shannon.

LES PASSEES SUCCESSOR TO FORMER GERMAN CLUB

The former members of the German club met Monday morning in the home of Mrs. W. W. Mitchell on Peabody avenue to discuss its reorganization. The meeting proved a delightful reunion of young matrons, who, as debutantes, had enjoyed unusual popularity and while members of the club had been hostesses at several of the most brilliant affairs ever given in Memphis.

By unanimous consent, Mrs. W. W. Mitchell, who was the first president and organizer of the club, was made president of the new organization. Mrs. William Overton, secretary and Mrs. Percy H. Wood, treasurer.

Debutante Complimented.

Miss Anne Perkins, one of the most attractive debutantes, was complimented with a beautiful luncheon given by Mrs. Warwick Aiken at the Memphis Country club on Tuesday.

BEAUTIFUL HARVEST LUNCHEON OPENS NINETEENTH CENTURY CLUB SEASON.

The social season of the Nineteenth Century club was inaugurated Monday afternoon with the beautiful harvest luncheon, over which the efficient young chairman, Mrs. Randolph Sears, presided.

Mrs. Sears had chosen a lovely russet, red and gold color motif, keeping with the harvest season, which was effectively carried out.

The stage was banked with masses of scarlet salvia and the tables were beautifully adorned with chrysanthemums.

One of the most interesting parties of the afternoon was that tendered by Mrs. A. R. DeLoach, complimentary to her lovely young daughter, Miss Madeline DeLoach, whose marriage to Mr. Francis Chilton Adams will be one of the notable November weddings.

Covers were laid for eight on a circular table having an exquisite autumnal decoration of scarlet berries in a rustic basket, while the Thanksgiving month was suggested by the pumpkin pie cards.

Seated at the table were Mrs. DeLoach, Mrs. Randolph Sears, Mrs. Thomas Ingram, Mrs. W. P. Phillips, Mrs. Walter S. Francis, Mrs. Joseph Collier, of Vicksburg, Miss. Miss. Lone Driver and Mrs. DeLoach. Following the luncheon the guests will be entertained with a box party at the Orpheum theater given by Mrs. Sears.

Mrs. M. T. Roush presided as hostess of a charming affair, her guests being seated at a large table adorned with red and yellow colors arranged in a long rustic basket, caught with a bow of yellow tulle. An artistic touch was added by lighted lanterns, the frames of ears of corn, while the places were marked by autumn leaves, with tiny yellow baskets holding the place cards.

Invited to be Mrs. Roush's guests were: Misses J. D. McColpin, J. D. McColpin, S. G. Scott, Louis Douglas, J. H. Stuart, Walter O. Smith, R. S. Dimmock, C. M. Bell and Henry H. Schutt. Specially complimented guests of the club were Mrs. and Mrs. Crane.

Mr. Crane talked to the club members informally at the conclusion of the menu on "Club Women and Art." Invited to sit with the honor guests at the large circular table adorned with large specimens of chrysanthemums were: Misses A. S. Buchanan, P. P. Williams, J. L. Mims, Walter Lane Smith, John Sneed Williams, Fred Gambell, Glen Bond, A. M. Austin, and Misses Loney, Florence McIntyre and Mairia Freeman.

At a table having an attractive centerpiece of chrysanthemums in lovely fall shades, Mrs. Frank T. Cochran entertained in honor of her guest, Mrs. E. D. Cannon, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., covers being laid for 10.

Mrs. David Pentress complimented two attractive visiting girls, her young cousins, Misses Rita and Clara Belden, of New York, who are her house guests. Others invited to enjoy her hospitality were: Mrs. Robert McCall, Mrs. W. E.

ART ASSOCIATION PRESENTS FAMOUS WAR CARTOONIST

The Memphis Art association will present a series of lectures on Wednesday evening, Nov. 13, at the Goodwyn institute.

The art department of the Nineteenth Century club will co-operate with the art association in bringing to Memphis this noted man, whose cartoons in the Literary Digest brought him world-wide fame.

He was the only artist allowed by the government to visit its factories and kind of people that mother sketches made there are text-books for artists.

One of the leading architects, in expressing his thanks to the art association for giving his daughters this opportunity to hear Mr. Pennell's message, presented to it his personal check for a large amount to assist in defraying the expenses of the lecture.

Mr. Pennell will have a vital message and not only Memphians, but many from neighboring towns and cities should take advantage of the opportunity of hearing it.

Miss Mims is chairman of the committee in charge of the lecture by Mr. Pennell, who will be complimented by the Chamber of Commerce with a luncheon on Wednesday afternoon.

Engagements

Johnson-Vinton.

Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Mary James Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, to Mr. Allen Vinton. The wedding will be quietly solemnized early in December.

Here and There

R. I. Gilmore, of the Missouri Pacific dining car service between Little Rock and Memphis, left Sunday night for Nashville to visit relatives for a week after which he will accept a run out of St. Louis. Mr. Gilmore has been on the Little Rock-Memphis run for six years.

C. F. Hill, of Little Rock, engineer on the Memphis-Hot Springs special, is in the Missouri Pacific hospital in St. Louis for an operation. Mr. Hill will be absent from his run for several weeks.

The many friends of Mrs. W. Julian Hardin will be grieved to know she is ill. Mrs. Hardin is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Vinton. The wedding will be quietly solemnized early in December.

Mrs. C. C. White has arrived from New York to attend to the proper protection of the E. E. Meacham property at 73 Union avenue, the adjoining buildings to the east recently having collapsed.

Mrs. A. Iseman will return Monday evening after a visit with her mother, Mrs. G. H. Bloom, at Meridian, Miss., and her sister, Mrs. A. Lipsitz, of Birmingham, Ala.

The many friends of Mrs. Robert Hudson, who is recovering from a recent illness, will be glad to hear that she is well and at home.

Linoleums At Old Prices

Buying in large quantities gives us power to quote you prices below the present market. Our warehouse has two carloads of linoleums. We can fill orders up to 200 yards of a pattern—

Heaviest linoleum, $2.50 and $2.75 per square yard.
Medium linoleum, $1.75 per square yard.
Measured for and laid at the price.

E grade printed linoleum, best quality, $1.25 square yard. Neponset, the best felt base floor covering made; value today, $1.25 per square yard; Bry's price, 90c yard.

Good grade felt base linoleum, in five good patterns, 30c square yd.

Clearing Discontinued Cretonnes

Pieces that are dropped—pieces that are too short for drapery uses. We have gone through our entire line of cretonnes and taken out all of the short lengths. The values run up to $1.00 per yard. The lengths run up to 20 yards. Priced for quick selling, 25c per yard

In the popular file weaves. These contracts were placed with manufacturer nearly a year ago. Our prices are very much lower than the present market. Dainty weaves suitable for every room in the house, in ecru, ivory and white. Priced at 35c, 50c, 60c, 75c per yard.

Tea Wagons $10.95

Just a few of these tea wagons left; finishes are mahogany, walnut and oak; substantially built, nicely finished, with separate tray and bottom shelf; the wheels are rubber tired; easily worth $15.00; our price, $10.95 each.

Cedar Boxes

We carry a complete line of boxes of the better kind. The finish of these boxes and the selection of the cedar is a matter to which particular attention is paid. Prices are $18.00, $25.00, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00.

Our drapery workroom is rapidly being sold up; our capacity is naturally limited—it takes time to make draperies.

We suggest the placing of your order as early as possible. We are now running about eight days on deliveries of made-up draperies.
